Bla Last Request. (From Judge.) "John," sobbed the dying poet's wife, "have you any last request to make?" "Yes, I have," said the poet feebly, "don't let them take my epitaph in hexameters. I can't write hexameters."

R. H. MACY & CO.

SIXTH AVE. THIRTEENTH TO FOURTEENTH STREET. We have greatly enlarged the Millinery Department (now under new management), and in addition to the display of Parisian Hats and Bonnets from the leading modistes, we have created many new ideas in our own workrooms at prices less than half what is demanded in so-called fashionable shops for like quality.

For the purpose of popularizing our recently extended Cloak Department, 2d floor, main building, we have placed on sale all IMPORTED Wraps, Jackets, and Costumes

At about one-half the prices they should ordinarily command. 50 Imported Costumes AT 32.81, 34.81, 39.99, 49.99.

Being scarcely more than the value of the material. Also, an immense assortment of Domestic Garments of the latest production at our popular prices.

A Cruel Rebuff. (From Vogue.) "Tramp—can you give me something to do?" "Gentleman—What are you?" "A journeyman, sir."

The Genuine Article. (From the New York Weekly.) Old lady—Is this a genuine alligator bag? Dealer—Yes, ma'am. I shot that alligator myself.
